

FIG. 1

Capture a live action event having at least one participant carrying a video camera supported on an eye level position of the participant

Upload the live action event to a central control site through Internet

Broadcast the live action event to a subscriber via the central control site through Internet

FIG. 2

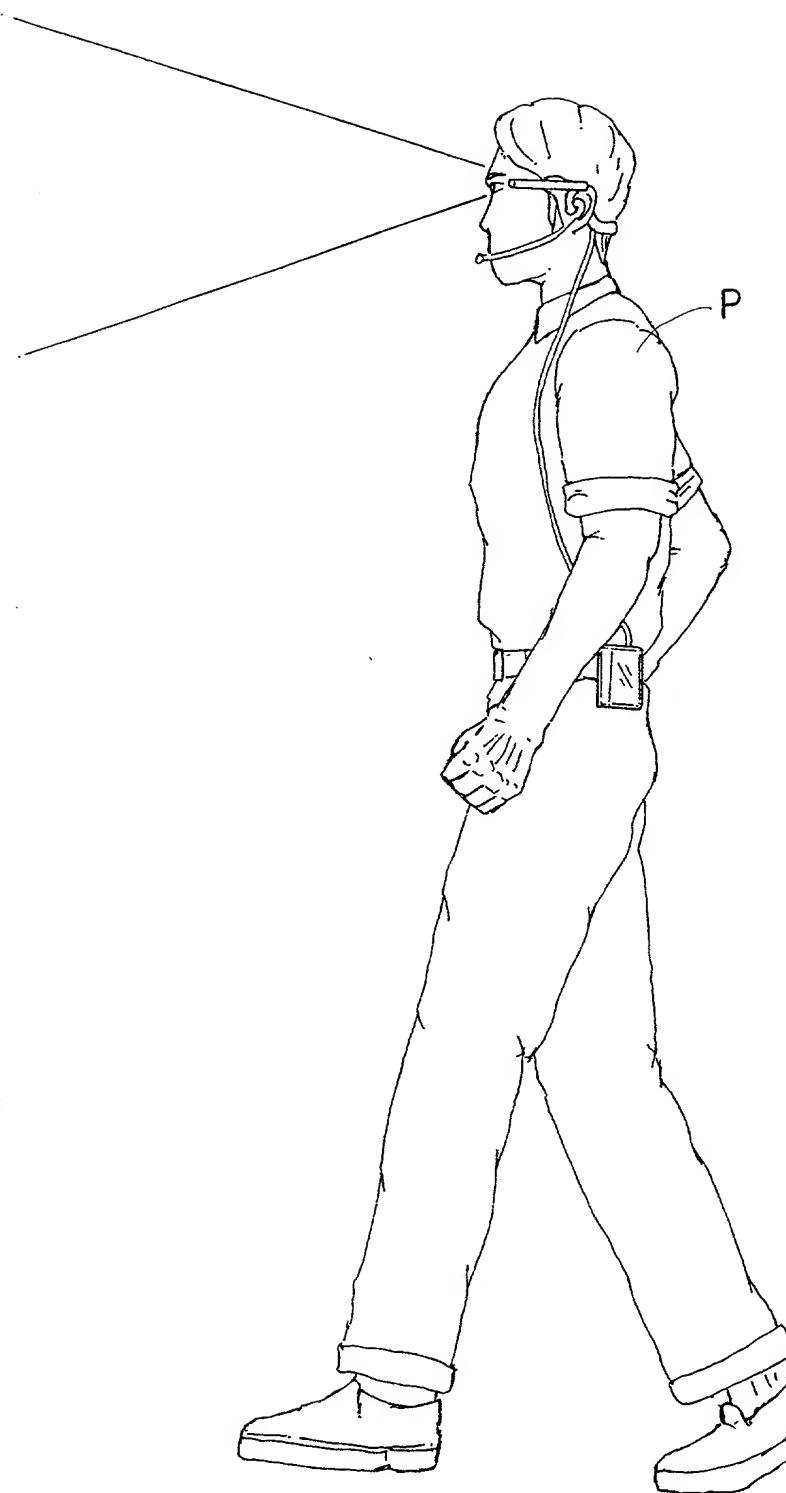

FIG.3